

Artful Artist

Your job will be to illustrate an interesting character from the section you read. Make a character sketch. Record your sketch in your Readers Notebook.

Instructions for Artful Artist:

1. Find three character traits to describe your character. Use the character traits list to help you (located online and in the Literature Circle bin).
2. For each character trait, give proof, or an example, from the book (including page number and paragraph number).
3. Tell one of your character's goals, or what the character wants to do in this section of the text.
4. Find one the character's problems in the section and the solution or possible solution to the problem.
5. Illustrate your character according to the author's physical description and your own visualization. Use colour!
6. If you have any questions about this section of the text record them in your notebook and share during the "Book Talk".
7. When you meet with your group, the Discussion Direction will ask you to share your character sketch.
8. When you are finished the "Book Talk" complete a Tweet response about one thing that you learned. Post it on our Summary of Learning chart or complete the reflection sheet about your role in the Literature Circle and hand it in.
